

Here we once again really seems imposble that we're going to the same school
I write this I can think 57,000,000,000 Great times we've and laughed! First we can go to good old St. Ann's and remember then was Mrs. Bambrick's art lesson there have to say anything about him) next there Cocoe's sweet smiling face and even Stella Marie and her there was ~~the~~ the best Sister Stella Marie and her activating voice and how much she loved us both so dearly!
en somehow you wound up here at Heights where we started lover was with Frair and McBride. You must admit that McBrides class was stimulating. This is really unreal because I swear seemed like last year I was signing your St. Ann's yearbook d it seem so far until we would graduate from High School all one thing I'll think of Frank as well. I think of you in High School
d I'll catch your Yearbook next year at Kent

Love, Janis (Huck)

Dear Joan,
I'm really glad
I got to know you. How did we ever survive three years of homeroom?!
Well, I hope you have a nice summer & good luck at Kent State
this year!
Love,
Marisa

To Joan,
Joan is a really beautiful person whom I've enjoyed getting to know these past two years.
I wish you all the luck in the world with school, and I hope that you achieve all your goals. I hope to always keep in touch with you, especially when you're down at school. I know it'd be fun to get together from time to time to go out dancing, but let's worry about the summer first. I hope we can get together a lot this summer. Love, Janis

CALDRON 1976
Reflections

Watching the bright afternoon sun glisten on a rippled lake one has a unique perception of ones surroundings; that of an intensely alive scene.

Yet looking at the same lake on a quiet, pondering day one has a different perspective in which the proper order of things is established. Everything seems to be in its proper place in the world.

*So it is over the course of a year.
There are times of great excitement etched into our minds just as vividly as that sunny day was.*

There are times of moody contemplation – of reflection – in which passing events are stilled and images and thoughts brought forward to be examined from a different position and time.

This is what concerns us here. The reflective study of events and people with a new perspective; that of time and growing more mature; changing as a result of this year.

The reflections of a year – and a time in space – not likely to be repeated again.

My task is, by the power of the written word, to make you hear, to make you feel – it is before all to make you see. That – and no more . . . If I succeed you shall find there, according to your deserts: Encouragement, consolation, fear, charm – all you demand, and perhaps that glimpse of truth for which you have forgotten to ask.

– Joseph Conrad

Dr. George B. Smittle, completing his second year as Superintendent of Schools, was pleased with the progress shown in all school projects. It was stated that the building plans were the most ambitious ever undertaken by a school system in the United States.

VO-ED: IN HOUSE

In its first year at Heights, the Intensive or "In House" program became a major part of the Vo-ed Department. Students took part in five skill-teaching courses: Intensive Office Education, Dental Assistance, Drafting, Auto Mechanics, and Auto Body and Fender Repair. In a two-year program, the classes were geared to "intensely" educate the student in a certain area, enabling him to be highly qualified in one line of work, thus making it possible to acquire a highly skilled job right out of high school. Located in the newly built wing, the program is a useful addition to the Heights curriculum.

VO-ED: CO-OP

Following in the traditional Vo-ed fashion, the Co-operative Work Study Program again offered practical courses to Heights. With the co-operation of local businessmen, students gained useful experience and knowledge in addition to receiving pay and high school credit. The program functions in five parts: Distributive Education, Occupational Work Experience, Occupational Work Adjustment, Co-operative Home Ec, and Co-operative Office Education.

New School

"For the first time, I am part of my schooling as well as my schooling being a part of me."

The main objective of the New School alternative education program is to allow students to take responsibility for their own education while developing trusting relationships with members of the staff. It is the opinion of New School personnel that these two ideals will lead to more positive educational results.

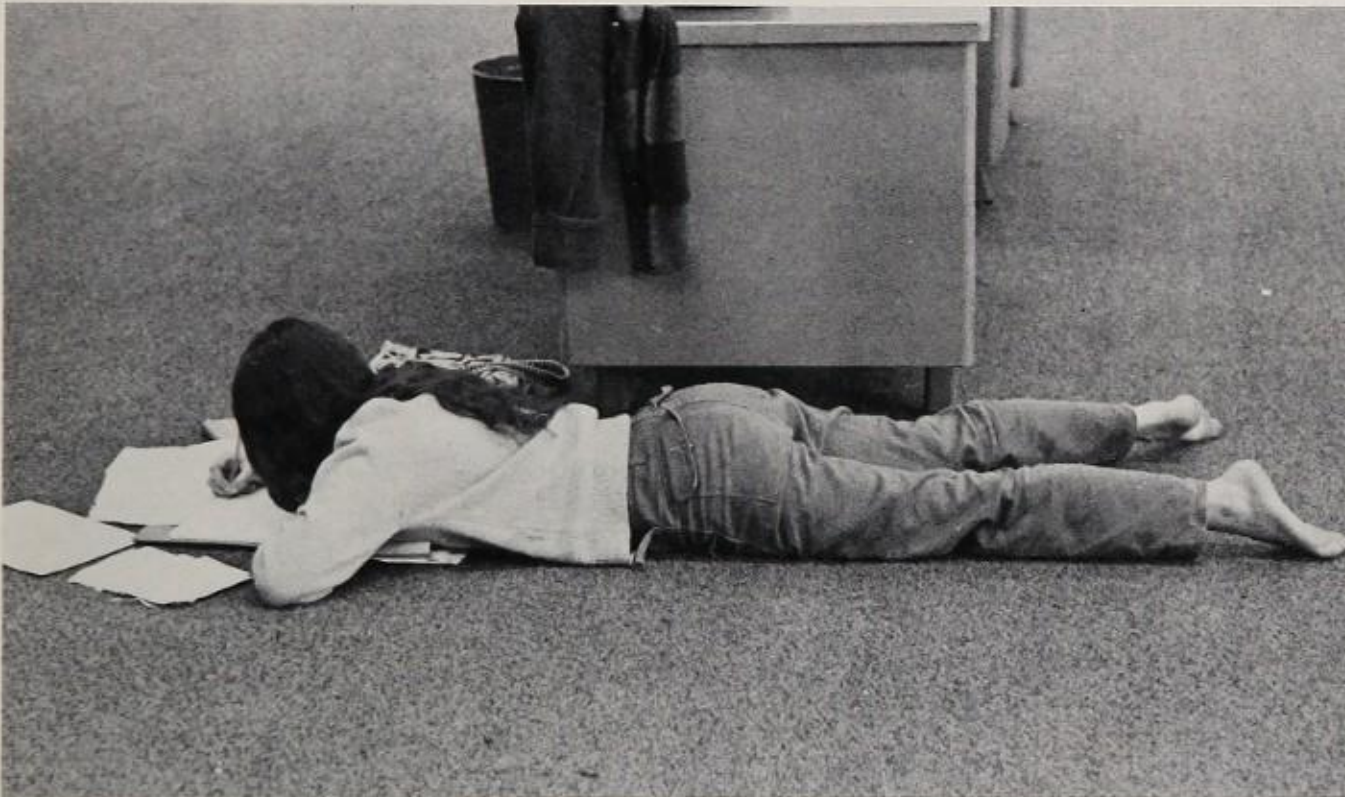

And it seems to be working. Now in its third year, New School consists of 250 tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade students and a staff of ten well-qualified and concerned teachers. The New School coordinator, Ellie Weld, makes sure everything runs smoothly. Students and staff work together through various workshops and discussions to translate their ideas into reality — a program which includes many different types of learning experiences to suit many different types of individuals.

The open-space environment New School now enjoys encourages a wide range of learning processes to take place at the same time. This type of arrangement allows informal classes, discussions, movies, demonstrations, individual studying, and socializing to occur simultaneously without fear of one group interfering with the next. Yet, an interested passer-by could stop and join in on an activity. New Schoolers have found that such a hub-bub of activity necessitates achieving greater levels of concentration in order to keep their minds on their own business.

Mr. William Tartar, most recently known as an excellent English teacher at Heights, this year served the dual jobs of student advisor and teacher.

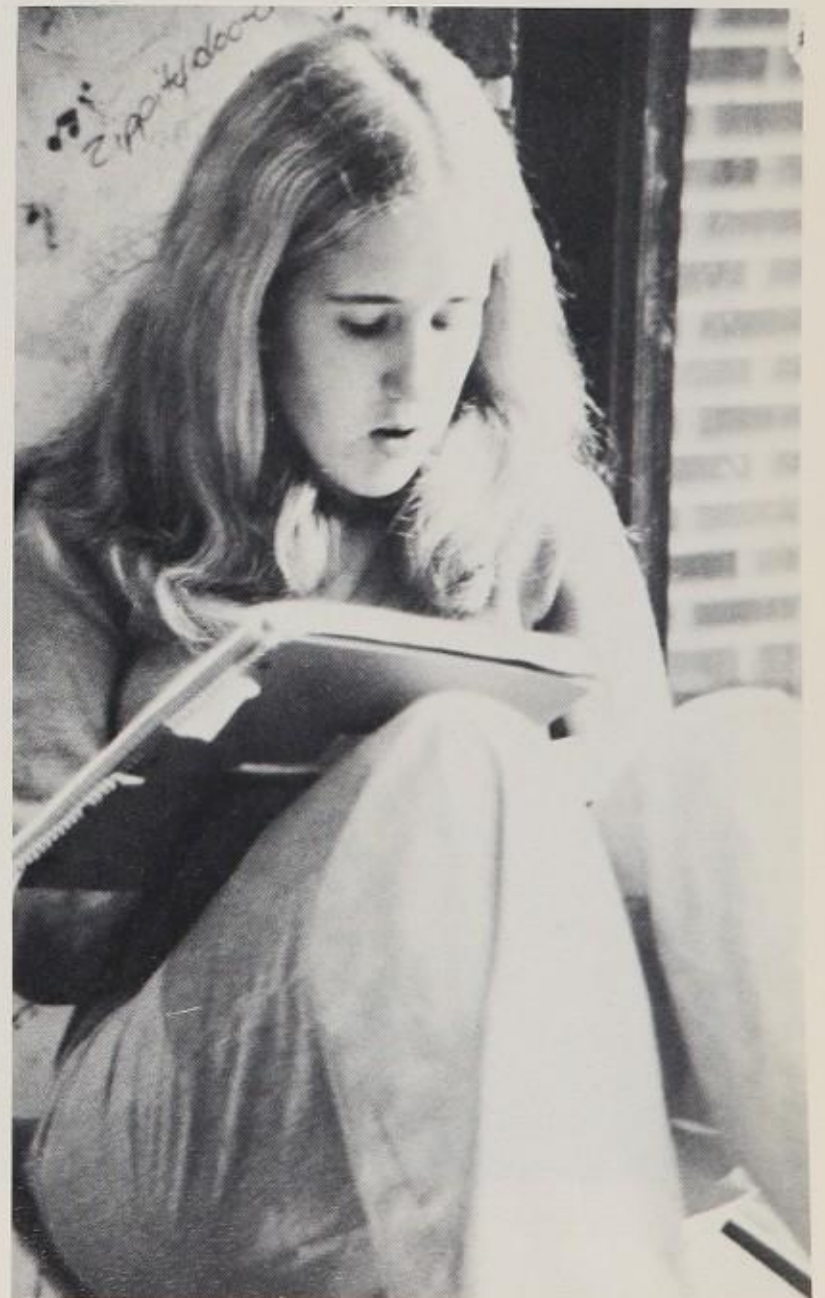

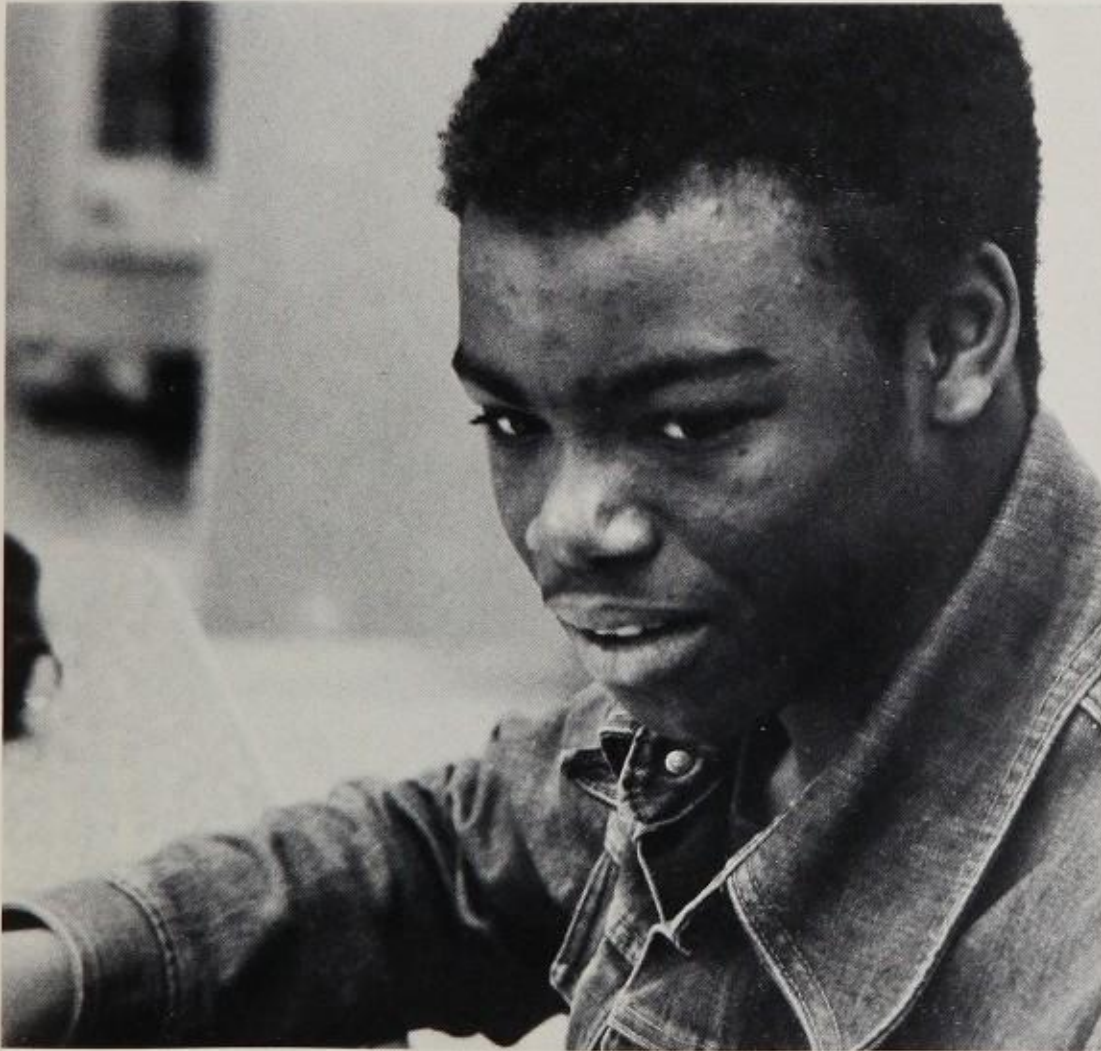

It was hoped that Mr. Tartar (at the right above,) would provide additional counseling and advice not available from the regular counselors.

Giving a helping hand to those students with difficulties in classes, the Tutors were part of a realization that not everyone at Heights was well-prepared. Math, English, reading, and a host of other subjects were taught during the afternoon sessions.

Presser made the All Ohio team and first team in the Eastern soccer division while Paulett and Swindell made the second team. Junior Bruce Caris received an honorable mention.

The girls Swim Team produced more wins this season than in the previous four years as a varsity sport.

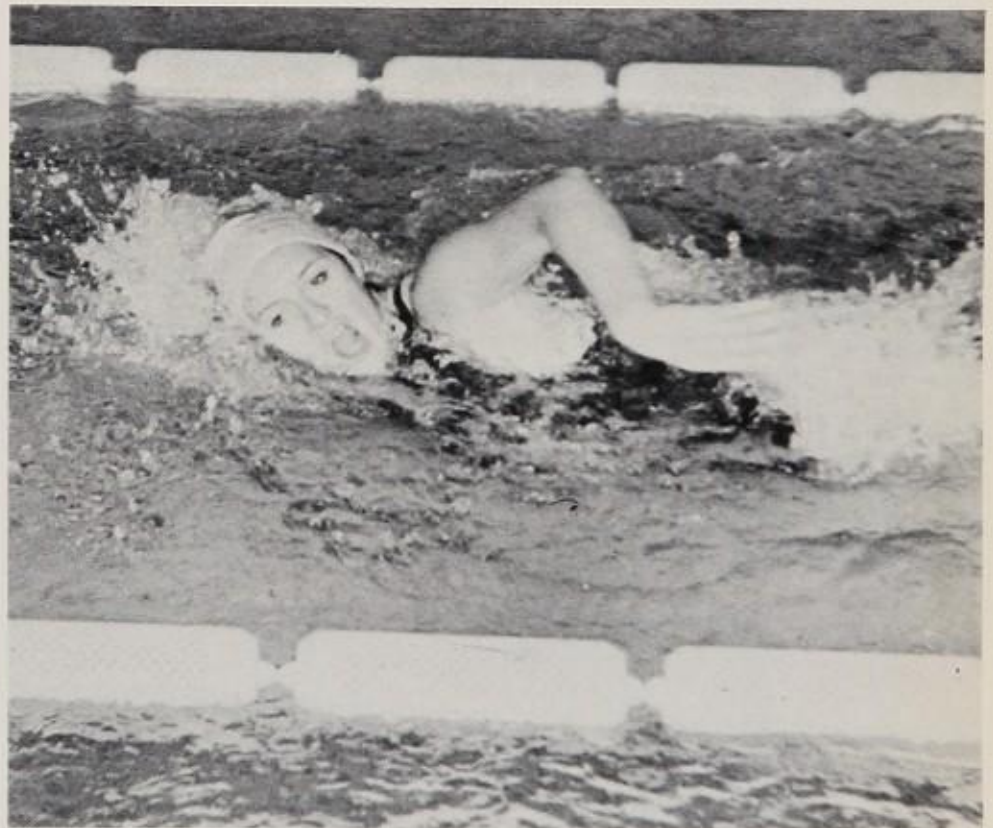

Taking first place in six dual meets Cindy Ellick was one of the most impressive divers in the LEL. Co-Captain Lisa Johnson provided leadership and "excellent depth in the distance free style events." Co-Captain Leslie Heuman was praised by Coach Arnold as the most talented swimmer he had ever coached. Leslie reached All-American speeds during this, her first year on the team.

Despite some disadvantages, the Heights football team played exciting games and produced excellent players like Ed Wong, Clarence Barber and Tony Dunklin. The offense provided plenty of punch, but unfortunately for the Tigers, their opponents gained too much yardage because of what first-year coach Dave DiCarlo called "serious defensive problems." There was a general upswing in attitude on the team, however, possibly indicating better seasons ahead.

Owing to the basketball fever which swept Heights this year the girls Basketball team received enthusiastic student support. Denise Adams and Julie Kerrigan led the team which was heavily made up of sophomores and juniors. First year coach Yoder expressed confidence in the success of next year's team.

Following the success of last year's team, which fought all the way to the state finals, the Basketball Team enjoyed more fan enthusiasm and spirit than ever as they ran to their second straight league championship.

An early season non-league meeting with prestigious East Tech set the tone for the season, as the Tigers ran the Scarabs off the floor of a packed Cleveland State gym. Robert Carman, Mike Franklin, and Mark Sack made the All-L.E.L. team, while George Dalton received an Honorable Mention. All four were honored by both Cleveland newspapers for their outstanding achievements. The Tigers may not have had quite the ball handling excellence of previous teams, but nevertheless were perhaps the fastest ever down the court, due to superior rebounding. The Basketball Team holds the distinction of being the last to win a championship in the old L.E.L. and the first to win one in the new L.E.L.

"I'm not going to take a shower for a month!", said one tired swimmer as he climbed from the pool at the end of the season. Even if the scores weren't high the team accomplished quite a lot, especially in seasoning new swimmers to the waters of competitive swimming. Coach Arnold was very pleased with the development of Jack Kennel, Dave Collard, Larry Karns, Pete Hindel, Mark Schoenfeld, Brett Bailey, and Matt Eisenberg. Seniors Mike Collard, who was described as a "super captain", and Mark Ventura will be sorely missed.

The Girl's Volleyball Team fought bravely this year, finishing the season with a 4 and 5 in the New (and very tough) Lake Erie League. In the biggest upset of the season, Heights trounced once undefeated Normandy. The tremendous effort they put forth in that game led Coach Jacqueline Spencer to say, "Next year we will strive for nothing less than the State Tournament in Columbus."

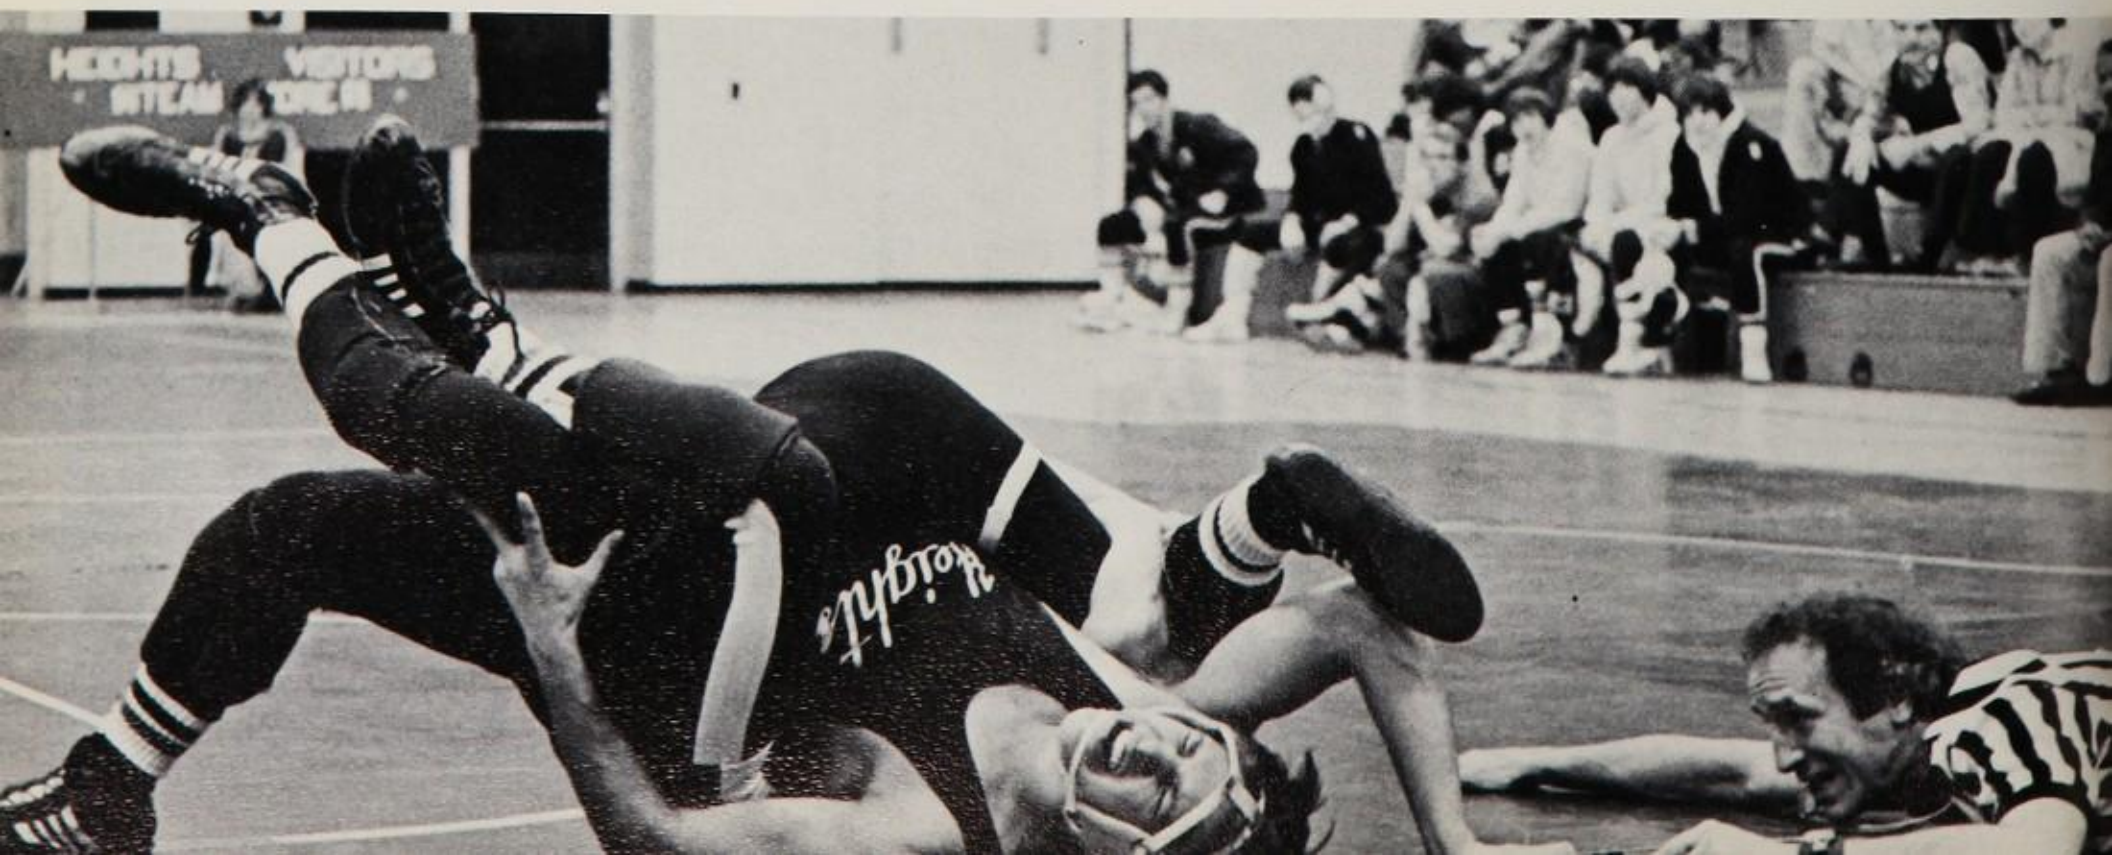

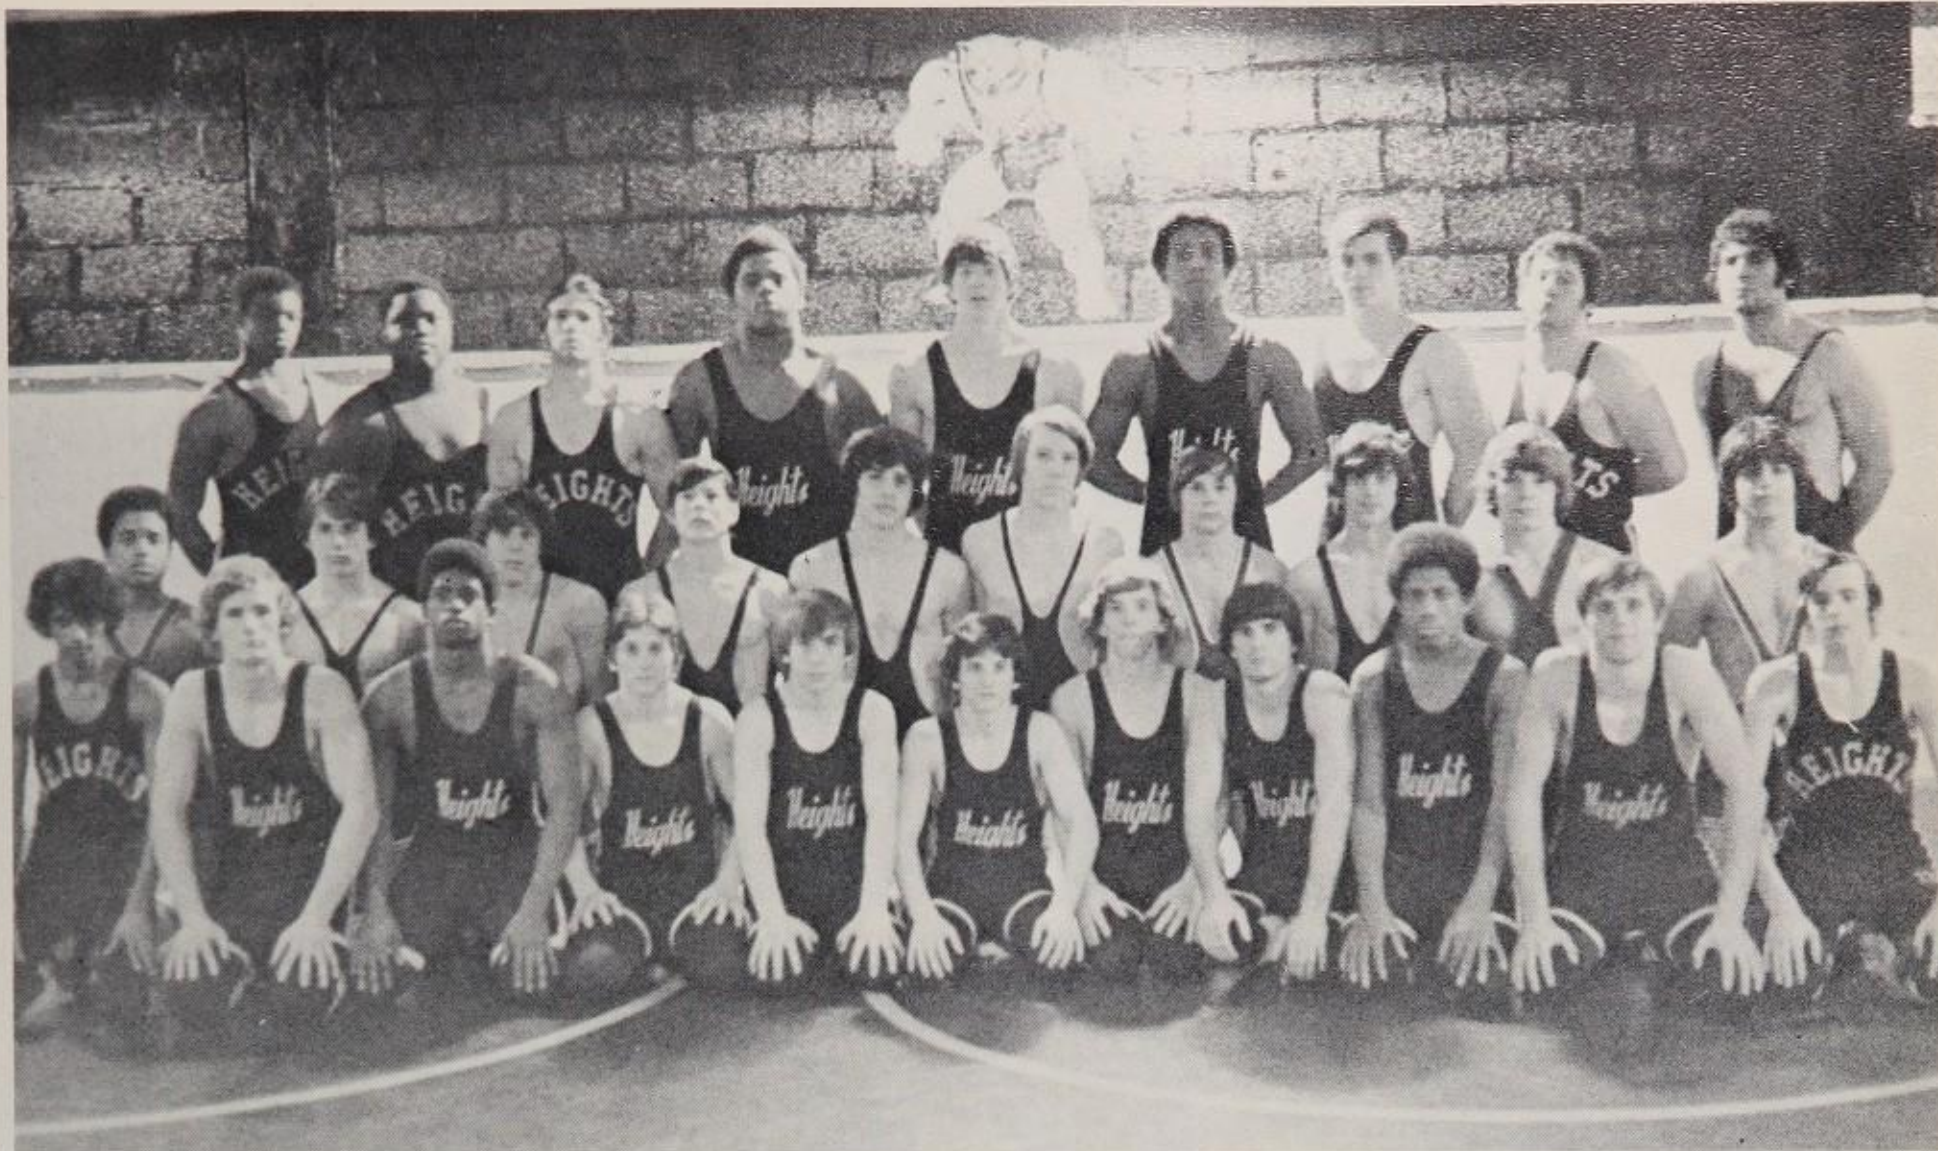

The Wrestling team combined superb individual performances with overall team depth to fashion one of the strongest squads in the area. They capped off the season by winning the AAA State Wrestling Championship. Seniors Tom Seals and Fred Gutierrez placed third and fourth at 167 and 175 lbs. respectively, while junior Bobby Cohen went on to win the 98 lb. title. Seals captured the 1st Heights Wrestling Championship by pinning his opponent in the final match with one second remaining. The returning champs were received with a well deserved standing ovation by the student body. Coach Hoon praised the efforts of the entire team for their hard work in achieving the goal that many thought impossible.

The Heights hockey team let nothing get in their way this season, finishing with an 18-0-0 record. They had the fewest goals scored against in the entire Greater Cleveland High School League. The team lost three important players to injuries but remained undaunted in their superior play. Junior Mark Jackson led the team in scoring while Chris Brandt and Sean Reagan were the high scoring seniors. Captain Rick Erze played excellent defense, and Ray Paulett had a great season letting only 22 goals through for the 132 Heights scored.

With the number of women's participatory sports on the increase the Girls Athletic Association played an important role in the sports scene. High on the list of its accomplishments was the formation of a weight reducing organization called T.O.P.S. (Take Off Pounds Sensibly.) G.A.A. also sponsored a spring banquet at which students active in any of the physical education programs were honored with a pin, letter, or trophy. The Yellow Jackets were the outstanding jocks of the women's Varsity Sports. They were representative of the talent and dedication displayed by the many female athletes at Heights.

Choir

This year's Choir is celebrating another year of musical excellence. Under the direction of A. Edward Battaglia II, they performed at such places as the Cleveland Stadium for a Brown's Halftime Show. Their program included a selection of songs from the "Wonderful World of Disney" while the full choir performed drill formations on the field. Adding to choir's already established class was their invitation to perform at Severance Hall for their Winter Concert. Returning alumni were featured in special selections. Choir was particularly busy in the area of much-needed fundraisers in order to earn money enough to subsidize their Richmond, Virginia tour.

GGC

It seemed to be the year of music for GGC-MC who received many special invitations throughout the year. The GGC performing along with the MC managed to pack the auditorium and bring down the house with a 2-night sell-out performance. A special attraction was the appearance of Congressman Vanik, who praised the musical talent of the groups. Described as the best ever, the groups were lauded with a special honor as the only musical group from Ohio to represent the state in Washington D.C.

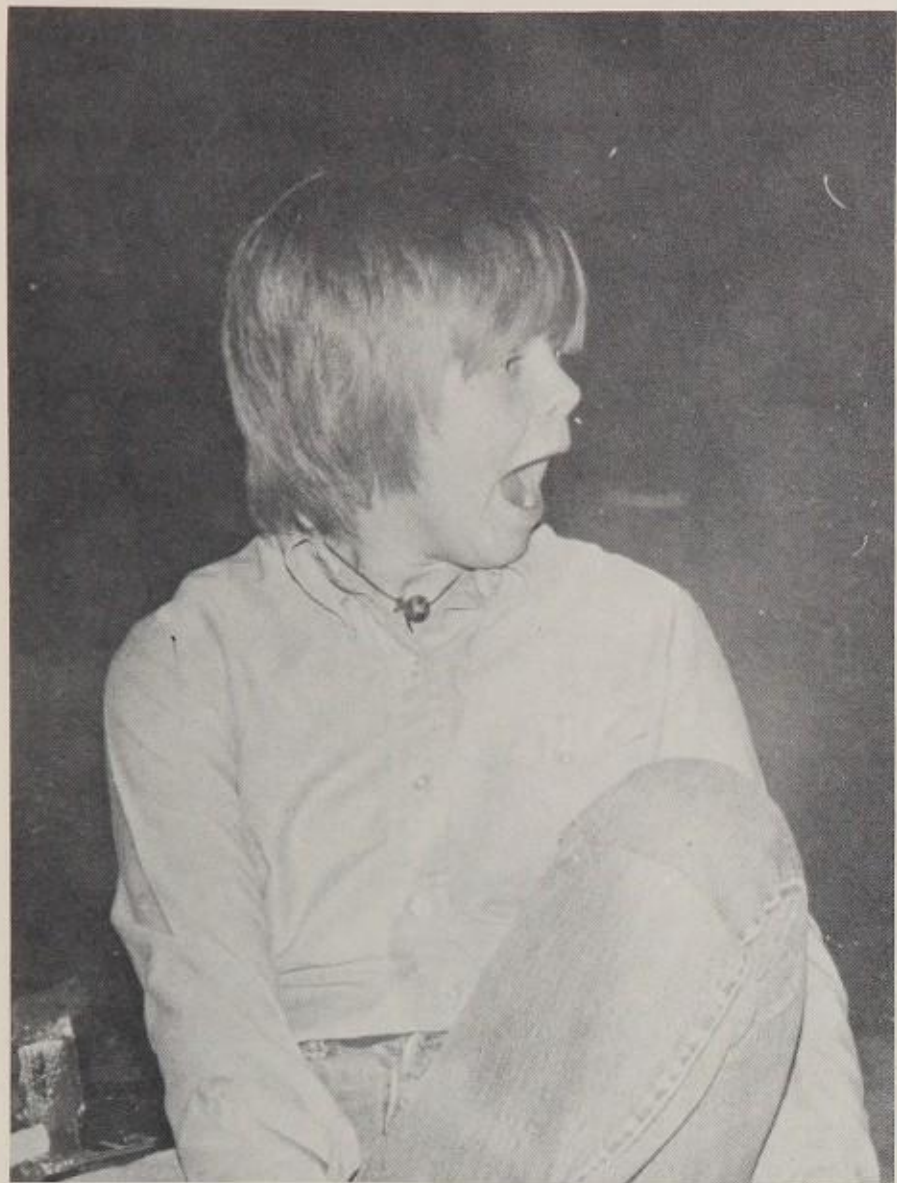

For the second year in a row, the Chorale was asked to appear for a Christmas Carol program on television station WUAB.

The annual spring tour was scheduled even after the stunning invitation to Washington, a treat well-deserved by the extremely hard-working groups.

CALDRON

Having been a nomadic tribe for most of the year, the Caldron staff fought adversity and settled down to put out a '76 yearbook. There were many hectic hours of work put in by the staffers as the deadlines approached. Because of the desperate need for pictures the photographers were under constant pressure to produce. Yet through much hounding and prodding by the editors and advisor, Lou Salvator, the dreaded deadlines were met and the Caldron was completed.

Student Council

Student Council has long been the brunt of much criticism. Last year, however, Student Council came alive and involved the student body in shaping school policy, and took steps in making Heights an active part of the community. Student Council president Phil Brown, vice-president Aaron Cassill, secretary Laurie Beard, and treasurer Alex Blum, have admirably continued this process of shaping the rejuvenation of student government. So far this year Student Council has hosted two successful dances, and an excellent Intersession was planned. Dr. Rehor, as advisor, once again proved instrumental in guiding student government.

Last year no one had heard of the Phoenix. The literary magazine staff released one issue at the end of the year with little advance publicity. The 1975-76 staff, with one year's experience behind them, engaged in fund raising activities to cover publishing costs, and has produced an excellent magazine, including fiction poetry, art, and photography.

Phoenix editors Erika Foldy, Debbie Lefkowitz, Bill Kiraly, and Judy Goldman and staff advisor Dr. Rehor unanimously agreed, "The Phoenix has arisen!"

HOLOCAUST

The weather for such a journey was perfect; cold, windy, a mist whirling around us all day. It was the same kind of weather which those who had been prisoners in Auschwitz had to live with and die from . . . I heard the trains arriving, with the cattle cars filled beyond capacity with prisoners. I heard the German guards roust them out and into lines, beating "belligerent" ones with their guns, kicking, punching, spitting, and generally humiliating their fellow human beings. And I heard the shrieks and screams of terror as these prisoners beheld what they were in for . . .

– Kenny Myers

While keeping Heights informed about current scholastic events the Black & Gold also provided valuable experience in journalism for the staff of fourteen. While retaining the usual features and sections the paper tried several new ideas in an attempt to spark reader interest. The tabloid gave students, through the popular "Letters to the Editor" section, a forum with which to express their views on topical issues around the school.

Orchestra

Five seniors had the unique opportunity to solo with the Heights Orchestra at various times throughout the year. One of the highlights of the 1976 season was the playing of Carl Orff's Carmina Burana in association with the GGC-MC. Their concerts were liberally spiced with Music of the masters of orchestral literature.

The versatility of the Drama Club was evident throughout the production and presentation of the fall play "David and Lisa." Unable to use the auditorium because of renovations the club became a troupe of wandering players, traveling to the far corners of the Cleveland Heights-University Heights school district to finally present their play in the Wiley Auditorium.

Once again under the supervision of Miss Shaila White, the club put on many fine productions throughout the school year and was able to present their major spring play in the new Heights Auditorium. A small group of the organization known as the Heights Players presented highly imaginative, special productions along with their regular plays.

Stage Crew

Due to the recent renovation of the stage, Stage Crew had little opportunity to exercise their talents until mid-way through the year. With all that behind them now, Stage Crew will set to work with their important responsibilities during various school productions.

AFS

"My name is Abdelhamid Bellazi. I'm born on 8/11/1957. I am an AFSer from Tunisa (north Africa). I came here on August 22. I am living with the Coppedge family that includes two brothers and two sisters (beside the parents of course). The oldest of the two sisters (and of my host brothers as well) studies at the college, 2nd year. The oldest of the two brothers is 17 of age, he is a 12th grader at Heights High School. He is fond of comic books and of Science Fiction in general. He has also a lot of humor, American humor that I sometimes don't understand.

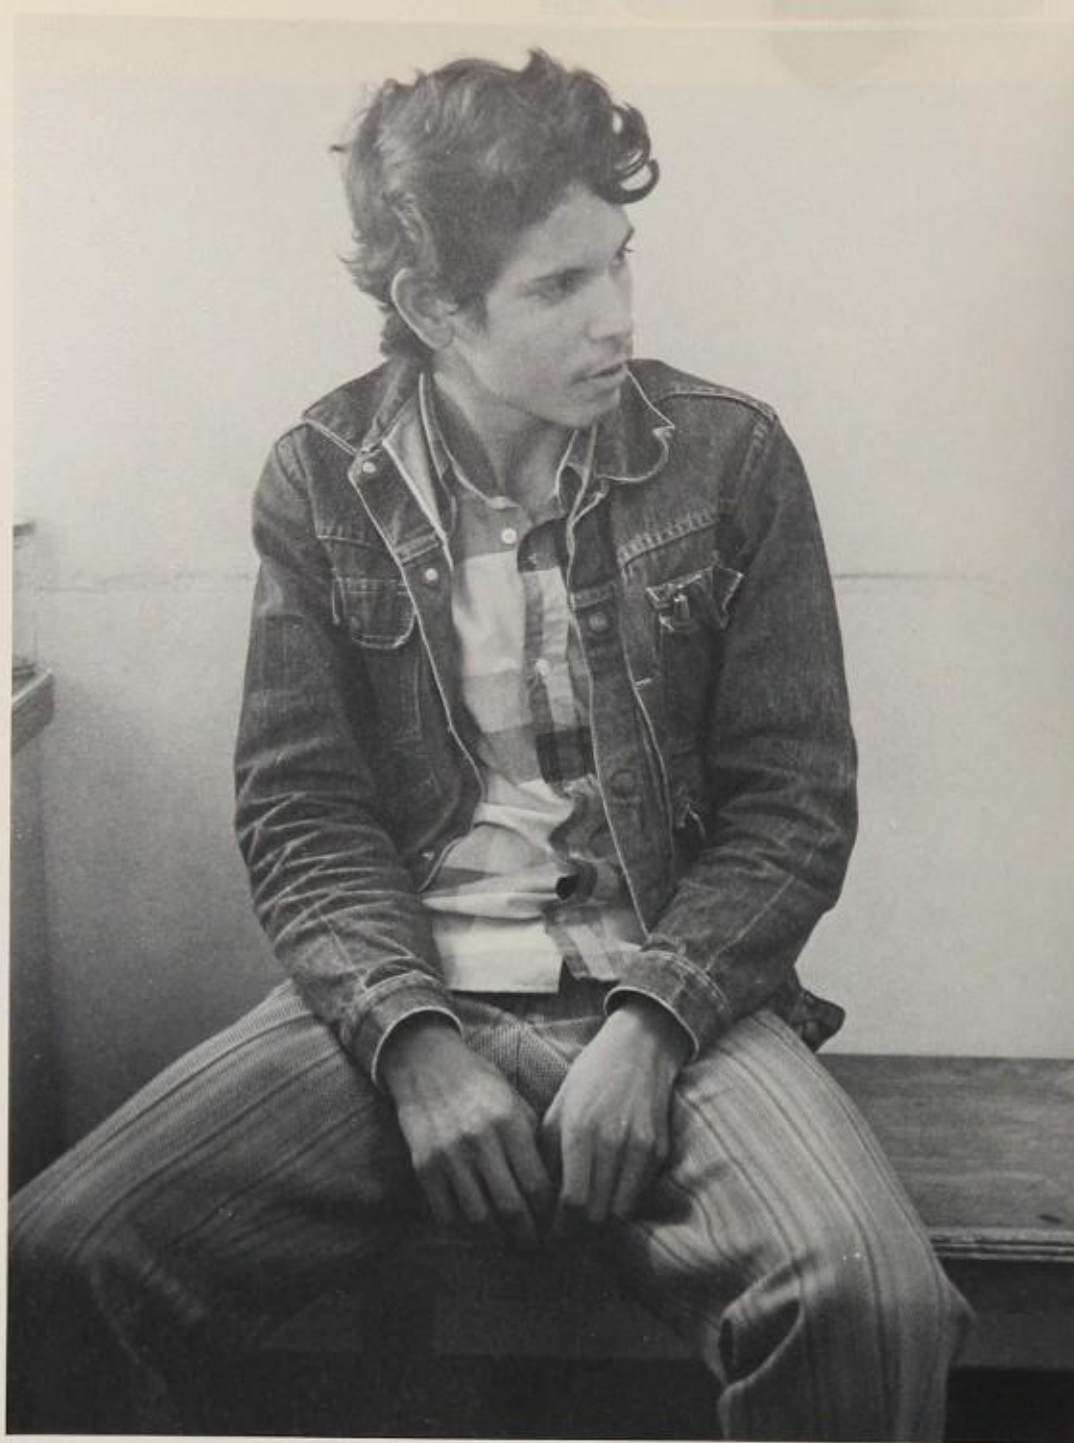

I study at Heights High as a 12th grader. My courses are mainly linguistic ones. Effectively I am learning: Spanish, German, Russian and Hebrew. Besides, I speak French and Arabic (and English of course): I think that's enough to allow me to visualize a linguistic career.

So far I am really enjoying myself. AFS never lets me feel homesick (to some extent), it is always active, looking for all the occasions that would give the AFSer a panorama of the American style of life.

I also thank the whole community of Cleveland Heights for its' financial and moral participation that enabled me to come here."

"I'm Beatriz Elena Gamboa. The people call me 'Cuqui.' I come from Cali-Columbia, South America. I feel happy living in Cleveland Heights. I'll be here for my AFS year; I like Heights High School, I have found many nice people who want to help. I'm sure that this year will be unforgettable."

The American Field Service had a particularly successful year with its numerous exchanges to and from Heights High. Representing Heights in Germany were seniors Jamie Graff and Maureen Fahey. Capturing the stomachs of everybody, the snack bar provided the major source of income to continue their activities. Another fund raiser was their square dances.

For the second year in a row, the Haunted House was a great success. Held in late October it raised nearly $1,000 for the Senior class. This project is one of the best ways to provide money for Senior Class activities, and receives enthusiastic support from the involved students and advisors.

HOME COMING

King's Court (l to r): F. Gutierrez, D. Spiegel, M. Franklin, G. Davis, S. Seiger, R. Erze

This year's Homecoming was highlighted by the 27-13 gridiron victory over the Parma Redmen. During halftime Debbie Rosenbaum was crowned Queen and Gerald Davis made King.

The Homecoming activities were concluded by a dance sponsored by Student Council. While the turnout was smaller than expected, those who did attend enjoyed the live music of Canterbury.

Queen's Court (l to r): S. Shubert, K. Warmeling, M. Campbell, J. Goldman, S. Woodall, D. Rosenbaum

Inter-session

For all those involved, the annual Inter-session was a tremendous success. Chairpeople Erica Foldy and Debbie Zylberberg, aided by their committee, spent long and hard hours rounding up speakers and courses far from the ordinary classes usually offered at Heights. Not only were there speakers from around the Greater Cleveland area but also students who taught classes which appealed to all. Variety was great so there was something for even the uninterested.

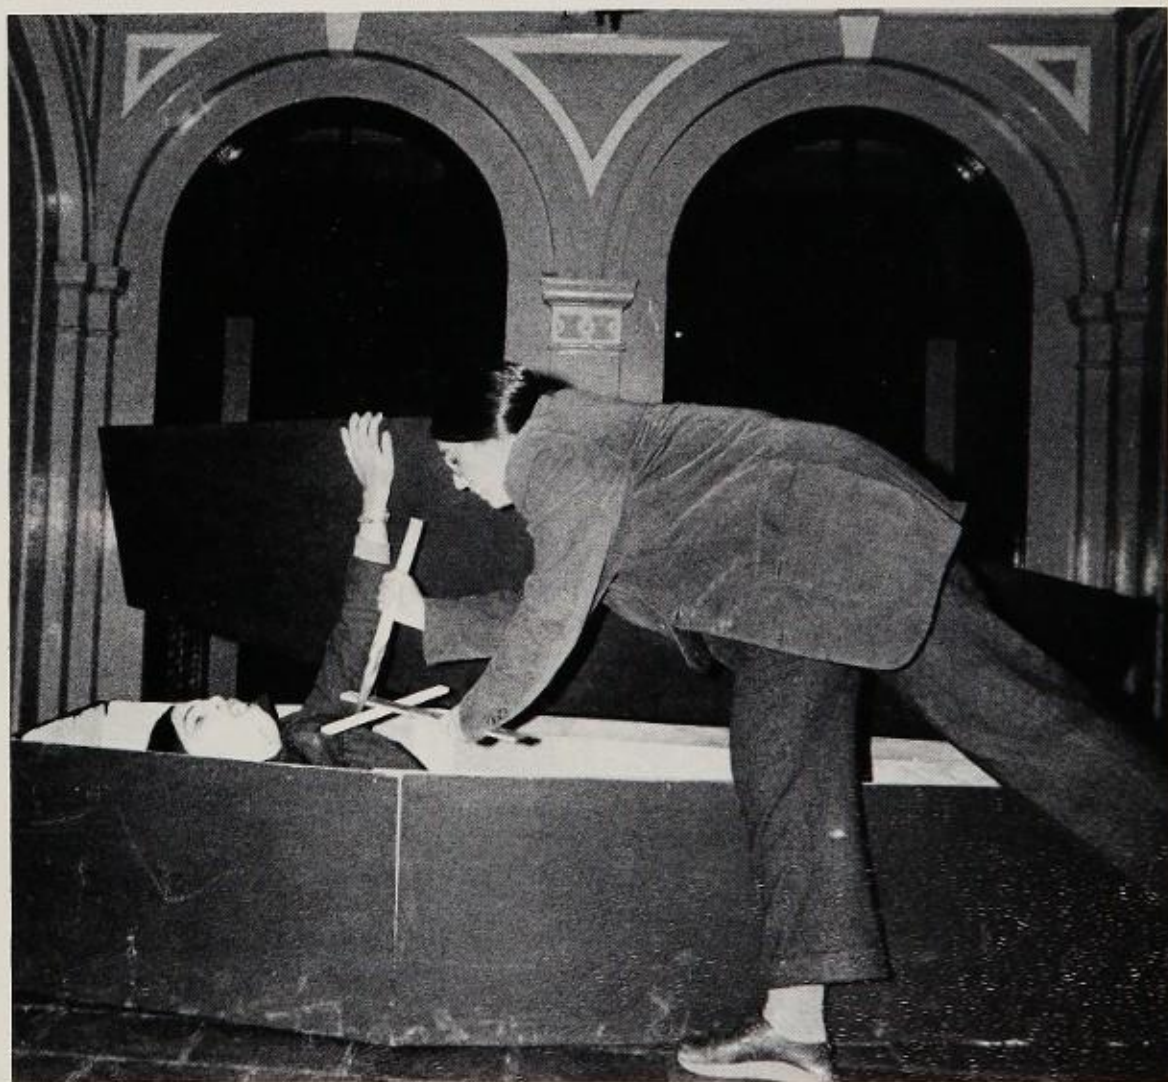

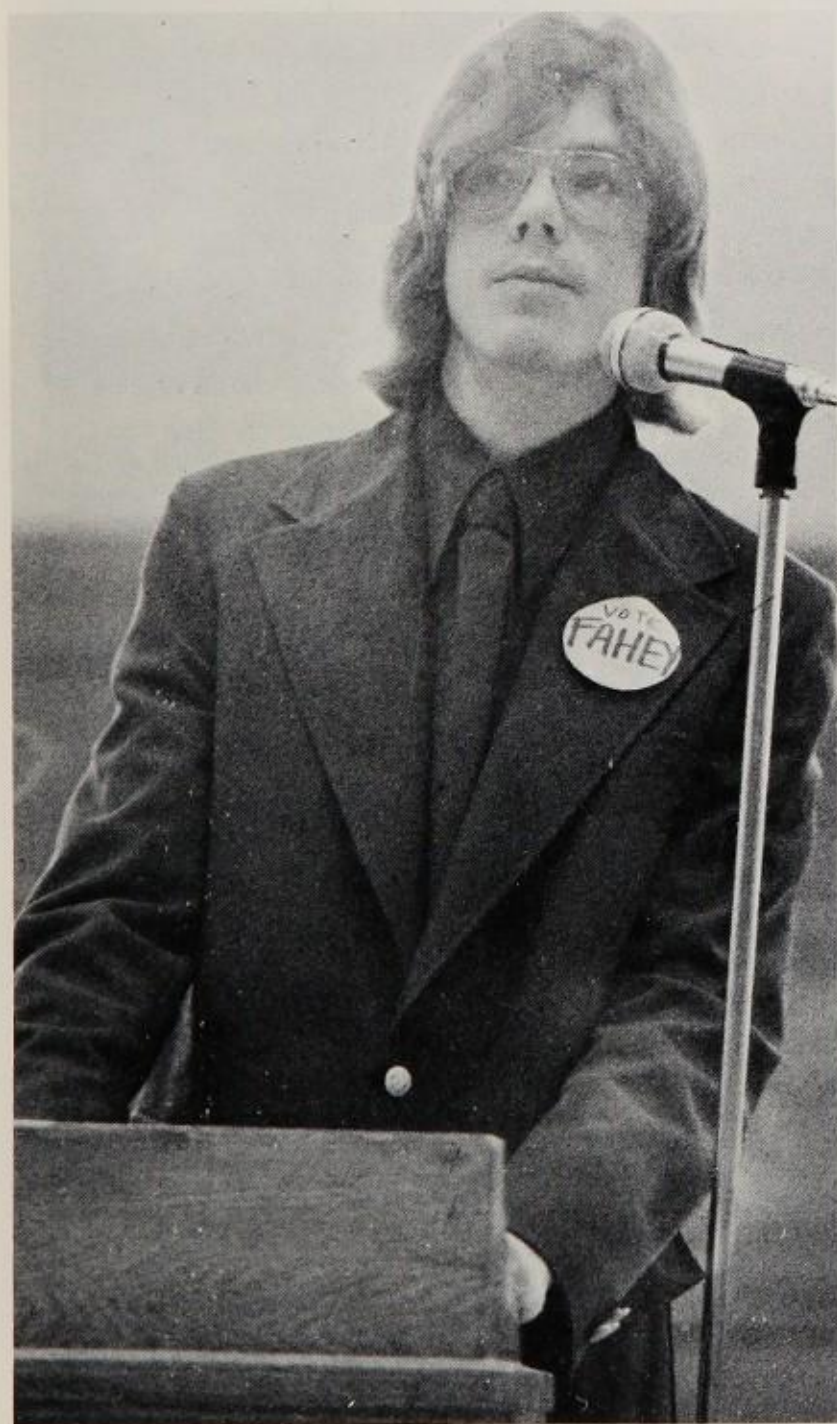

Caldron Action-cam always on top of things

While hiking through the Great Smokey Mountain National Park a yellow feather was found. It belonged to the rare Thwork Nurder. The society which bears its name studied the trees and wildflowers around the Shaker Lakes and watched the skies for interesting birds. In addition to the week-long visit to the Smokies in October, society members back packed through Southern Ohio during Intersession.

Throwing parties for Mr. Quail, studying together for tests; these were just two of the three or four activities which the Physicists Club members engaged in. The prerequisites for admission to the club called for being a second year Physics student and being at least an adequate shot with a lasar.

Physicists Club: (L to R) J. Lindsay, B. Furnas, Mr. Quail, M. Collard, A. Cassill, J. Schulman, P. Egar

Even with rigorous thumb exercises, excellent nail care, and plenty of practice the Tiddly Winkers did not win a match this year. They did not lose one for that matter, either. In fact, they never had a chance to demonstrate their sporting form in an actual head-on meet with another school.

Out of the paint box and into Heights came the fairies — the Rainbow Fairies, that is. These promising artists have taken three years of art and are, logically enough, all seniors. They help organize and run the spring art show and have themselves won numerous honors and awards in various art shows and contests.

Rainbow Fairies: (L to R) Row 1 — L. Klaus, L. Bykowski, V. Harris Row 2 — N. Conces, L. Berke, D. Yoder, D. Sims, E. Bern Row 3 — D. Thompson, G. Orosz, B. Koway, M. Silver, N. Melton, K. Burney, L. Wickert, J. Dowling, D. Weiss

The goal of the investment club's members was to raise $1,000.000 apiece. From this aspired amount they would contribute $990,000 to the Preservation of Mr. Young's Solvency Fund. With the remainder the investors would purchase Switzerland and then retire.

In its second year of existence, the Gospel Choir performed at nearby schools and at religious functions. After school one could hear the twenty members singing well-known gospel music as well as some of their own original compositions.

Explorers Club: Mr. Patti, Penny Cillen, K. Passo, P. Brain, Q. Ball, Paul Bearer, Sue Age, K. O'Pectate, Abe Zorbeen Jr., Les Toil.

The purpose of the Explorers was to identify, tag, and study the migratory habits of pink flamingos, chromeballs, and jockeys. They also formed the Society to Prevent Mayhem Done to Celluoid Ducks.

"And now for something completely different —". Inspired by the zany BBC comedy show, the members held many peculiar events — such as learning how to defend themselves from fresh fruit, how not to be seen, and how to saw a tree with a flounder. This club would like to give its thanks to the makers of spam, bacon, and spam. (Mooses trained by Claude Yutzman.)

The A.P.E. (Art Portfolio Enthusiasts) Club was formed to promote the Heights Art Department. Their main function was arranging the spring Heights Art Show. Each week the members held a breakfast before school during which they discussed upcoming shows and displays.

The Monolith Club

Created in the hope of spreading blueness and pinkness around school, the society passed out buttons and paint cans, but to no avail. The only thing spread this year was plaster dust. Yet one could distinguish members as they would wriggle their noses in secret greeting.

Pink Panther - Blue Aardvark Society: (L to R) Row 1 - L. Johnson, P. Segal, J. Newman, S. Wish, A. Levy, W. Sorin, B. Bailey Row 2 - A. Blum, B. Furnas, J. Bates, A. Cassill, L. Visnapuu, W. Wynne, M. Collard Row 3 - W. Luehring, J. Tomick, R. Davis, T. Markoff, S. Presser, S. Ralya

B.Y.O. is a deceiving name for this club. Not only did they bring their own, but it came in different forms — a crescent wrench, Neil Sedaka's Greatest Hits, cooties, a red-crested hickenlooper, tacos, a proctologist, a 9-iron, a Rauncho rhinestone and stud setter, and a pair of zircon encrusted tweezers.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Infiltrating ski areas in two groups, Boston Mills on Tuesdays and Brandywine on Fridays, Heights skiers, sponsored by Mrs. McBride and Miss Lefferts, raced through a successful season this year. Blessed by an ample amount of the beautiful white stuff, and a high level of interest, there were even a few group trips made to take New York by pole.

President John Schwartz says, "It's been an exciting group . . . even considering the crowded lines and few casualties, we've had a great time."

Ski Club? "It's had its ups and downs," hams hotdog Randy Davis, "Whether the weather is permitting or not, attendance in the men's room seems to be up."

How do these nice girls spend some of their evenings? Timing for the nice boy swimmers, of course. Is there any better way to spend a Friday night?

In addition to having an exciting time, the Swim Timers, led by Robin Albright, were a great help to the officials and Coach Arnold in running the home meets smoothly.

How do these nice boys spend their Friday nights? Cheering and getting rowdy at the home basketball games, of course.

This year's Section was a great moral uplift to all members taking part in the games — the Heights team, the opponent's team, and, especially the referees. Spreading good will and sportsmanship wherever they went, the Section was a great reflection of the general attitude of Heights.

Led by sponsor Mr. Patti, the Riding Club, a group of dedicated Heights equestriennes, galloped their faithful equos through the fields and forests of Red Raider.

“Bishop to Queen Three, Knight to King Four!” With these war cries, the Heights Chess Club entered into hand to hand battle. Part of the Greater Cleveland Chess League, Southeast Division, The players had a satisfying season of five wins, two losses, and one draw, under the sponsorship of Mr. Dinday. A pleasurable strain on the brain, these men found many afternoons of quiet learning and competition in chess.

Seeing the 1976 Caldron in its completed form it is hard to imagine all the hard work and long hours put in along the way. There were many problems — bad sales, deadline problems, a perpetual lack of pictures — but it was made worthwhile by some really great people who pitched in to get things done. Aaron Cassill deserves a note of thanks for handling all the headaches associated with the business end of the book. Joe Sztul once again did a super job organizing and running the sales campaign and ad promotions. Lou Salvator was always prowling around the room at deadline time offering advice and help to the weary staffers. There are so many other people who patiently listened while I ranted and raved as the book either fell apart or came together in perfect form. To all those people, you know who you are, I thank you so much and wish you all the luck in the world.

And now is the time to say our goodby's; but never to forget those few sweet moments when I knew you and you knew me.

— David C. Wagman

Dear Joan,
I won't take to long because of all the people standing in back of me begging me to sign their yearbooks. Homeroom I've forgotten already, all except the glow of your smiling face. Remember c/153 the glow of your smiling face. Remember the gleams & like double dates well, your below that now. Anyway your really sweet & I know things will go well for you. I wish you many special ~~things~~ wishes & special dreams! Goodbye

Love Always,
Stacie Anne Merrick

Dear Joan,
I don't know what I would have done without you in Biology.
It was really a great year & it's hard to believe that it's over.
I wish you all the luck in school next year & always. Have a great summer.
P.S. See you at Prom
YIPPIE!
